Union Meetings in New-London and Norwich. Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

THE CANVASS IN CONNECTICUT.

Nonwich, Thursday, March 31, 1864. We had a good meeting at New-London or Tuesday: and last night, despite the storm, an assen blage of more than two thousand came together d Breed's Hall, in this city. The spacious galleries were filled by loyal women. Connecticut will give a good account of herself on Monday next. Her hills and hes valleys are resounding with the voice of Freedom Lout. Col. Nichols of the 18th Connecticut gave a thrill ing description of his incarceration in Libby Prison and a detailed statement of the messures taken to destroy the Union soldiers, by blowing the place up in case reduced the execuation of the other line of their works in your Kilpatrick's raid was successful. It is beyond question that the Rebel authorities arranged for the perpetration of this monstrous crime. What will their traitorous peace allies at the North say to it?

Fire at Santa Fe-Battle with Apache In dinas-Unconditional Surrender of the Navajo Nation. DEXVER CITY, Thursday, March 31, 1864.

DENVER CITY, Thursday, March 31, 1864.
Santa Fé papers of the 19th say that on the night of the 18th, one wing of the Capitol buildings was destroyed by fire. Valuable papers in very important law cases were destroyed.

The Gatette says that letters speak encouragingly of the Arizona Gold Mines.
Another fight was reported to have taken place in Southern New Mexico between our troops and the Anoches. Of the latter 45 were killed.

Another ngat was reported to have taken page in Southern New Mexico between our troops and the Apoches. Of the latter 45 were killed.

Major McFerren, Chief of Gev. Carleton's Staff, had arrived. He reports the unconditional surrender of the entire Navajo Nation, numbering nearly 6,000 Indians, who are being collected at Fort Summer. Some of them have large flocks, but a majority are in a destitute condition. To feed them Gen. Carleton has been obliged to not the troops on helf rations. to put the troops on helf rations.

Col. Casson is to have charge of the Indians until they are turned over to the Indian Buresu.

Movements of the Rebels in Kentucky. LOUISVILLE, KY., Wednesday, March 30, 1864. About one hundred of the Rebel force under Gen. Forrest crossed the Cumberland River at Eddy-ville vesterday. An officer direct from East Kentucky reports that a large force is concentrating at Pound Gap under Gen.

He says the Rebels carry five days' rations and forace.

and he thinks that an extensive raid will be made into The Rebel forces which evacuated Bull's Gap several days since have moved north. It is presumed that they have either gone to join Gen. Longstreet in Virginia or to effect a junction with Gen. Buckner at The Third New-Jersey Cavalry.

Yesterday's dispatches from Oregon say that cold rains and snow have prevailed over most of that State during five days past. Reports from the Upper Columbia are very encouraging for miners. There will be plenty of snow on the mountains to supply water for Spring and Summer minary above the streams having mountain sources.
